
Mystery In the Attic

Circle the word that is spelled wrong in each sentence. Write it correctly in the blank at the end of the sentence. An example is done for you.

1. There is a very strange sound comeing from the attic. — coming
   SL TH PE

2. It could be a mouse, but I sure hope its not! _____
   ME LY IN

3. I just remembered that our nieghbor warned us about bats. _____
   SH RI CK

4. My brother thinks I'm only imaging the noises. _____
   AT BE ES

5. Our little sister is so afriad that she's crying. _____
   GR PI AN

6. I'm trying to forget about it, but the mysteryous sounds continue. _____
   TT EI OO

7. I'd love to ask Mom what could be causeing the rattling. _____
   BR NG GH

8. I cann't find her anywhere in the house or the backyard. _____
   G - T V - N S - U

9. Bravly, I make the decision to check things out for myself. _____
   TS BA EA

10. Quitely and cautiously, I climb the ladder into the attic. _____
    R – S M – A L-D

11. When I finaly reach the top, I start laughing uncontrollably. _____
    DU FR UA

12. There's Mom, moving boxes of our old cloths and toys! _____
    ND QU LL

Now here's a very different joke:
Question: When should kids wear bibs to school?

Write the pair of letters under every word you circled in the blanks with the same number as the sentence.

Answer:

| _ | _ | _ | _ | _ | T | H | _ | _ | _ | _