Mystery In the Attic

Circle the word that is spelled wrong in each sentence. Write it correctly in the blank at the end of the sentence. An example is done for you.

1. There is a very strange sound comeing from the attic. SL PE	coming
2. It could be a mouse, but I sure hope its not!  ME  LY  IN
3. I just remembered that our nieghbor warned us about bats.  SH RI CK
4. My brother thinks I'm only imaging the noises. AT BE ES
5. Our little sister is so afriad that she's crying . GR Pl AN	·.
6. I'm trying to forget about it, but the mysteryous sounds continue .  TT EI OO
7. I'd love to ask Mom what could be causeing the rattling .  BR GH
8. I cann't find her anywhere in the house or the backyard .  G - T V - N S - U
9. Bravly. I make the decision to check things out for myself .  TS BA EA
10. Quitely and cautiously, I climb the ladder into the attic.  R - S M - A L-D
11. When I finaly reach the top, I start laughing uncontrollably .  DU FR UA
12. There's Mom, moving boxes of our old cloths and toys!  ND QU LL
Now here's a very different joke:  Question: When should kids wear bibs to school?
Write the pair of letters under every word you circled in the blanks with the sentence.	e same number as the
Answer:  T H  11 3 7 1 6 10 5 12 2 8 4	9 !