Example of a Lesson Plan for Beginning Level

- Today's date on board (Bring small white board)
- Greeting
- Ask student(s) what today is and point to date on board (to be answered in a sentence)
- Go over homework. (if any)
- Suggested Goals for Students (Ex: say name & address -write name & address, etc). Teach 3 colors. Show picture book pointing out colors.
- Assign homework.

Activity 1:	Materials:	Time:
Teach Survival Goals 1- 5	Worksheet	Whatever is reasonable.

Note: Ask if student knows what first and last means (RE: name). You may have to take a side step and explain these 2 words.

Activity 2:	Materials:	Time:
Teach Survival Goal 12 (colors)	colored paper	Whatever is reasonable.

Note: Teach only 3 colors to begin with. (Ex: red, blue green). Teach in a sentence – "This is red", then write the sentence on the white board.

Activity 3:	Materials:	Time:
Look at a book	Picture book	When lesson time is over.

Note: You can ask student, "show me red", etc. on each page.
Student should answer "this is red".

Homework could be to write sentences: This is red.
This is blue.
This is green.

You may want to make a homework sheet as a guide and put a colored crayon circle of the color in the sentence. May indicate that each sentence should be written 5x's.
